The Spiritual Direction Of Saint Claude De La ColombiÃ"re

Synopsis

St. Claude la Colombiere, recently canonized by Pope John Paul II, ranks among the masters of the spiritual life as a director of souls. He gave direction to countless souls, including St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, the visionary of the Sacred Heart revelations. Jesus told St. Margaret Mary, "Father Claude is my perfect friend and servant. His gift is to lead souls to God." St. Claude preached missions and retreats on the Sacred Heart. He was also a clever psychologist who easily read the hearts of others. His sure judgment, aided by grace, enabled him to understand the difficulties of each soul and give the advice most needed for each person. Readers of this spiritual gem will find his insights full of wisdom and inspiration. His writings cover such important areas of the spiritual life as Confession, Mass and Holy Communion, Confidence in God, Perfection and Holiness, Peace of Soul, Charity, Education of Children, Spiritual Joy, Prayer, Zeal and much more.

This is a valuable work for Roman Catholics. It's comparable to Ladder of Divine Ascent, Revised Edition, Uniformity with God's Will, The Way of Perfection, and Humility Of Heart. Claude de la Colombiere was a Jesuit missionary during the Counter-Reformation. Born in 1641, he was confessor to, among others, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. Imprisoned for a year in England, he returned to his native France where, his health broken by his English imprisonment, he died on February 15, 1682: "As I feel a great attraction toward prayer I asked God, by Our Lady's intercession, to give me the grace to go on increasing in love of this holy exercise until my death. It is the only means of purifying us, of uniting us to God, and of allowing God to unite himself to us and be glorified in us. We must pray to obtain the apostolic virtues; pray that we may use them to help others, and pray also that we may not lose them while serving others. The counsel: pray without ceasing, seems sweet to me and in no way impossible. It includes the practice of the presence of God, and with his help I resolve to follow it. We always have need of God, therefore we must always pray.
