Reviewed by Danielle Taylor Author: John Eckhardt As a avid reader I would consider myself... after spending many years in church and not fully understanding the calling placed upon my life, I'd walking around in bubble, seeking and searching for someone or something to tell me why I was indeed here. I knew that I was different and that God spoke to me all the time about many different things, what he was going to reveal. However I dared not to say such a thing because people would look at you a bit strange saying that you hear God talking in that small still voice. I never knew of the prophetic until recently in the past several years. I asked God to teach me.. little did I know, I would be placed in a place, I would call ground zero! I told the Lord if you send me I will go, direct me into what he had for me. Which brings me here. As I was looking for a book at the leading of God, this book came to me, but I waited for days to make sure that it was indeed from God. I've read many books when it comes to the things of God, I must say this book was an easy, powerful and uplifting read. This teaching/ instructional guide into how God is still speaking to the body of Christ, even though many people within the body want to say that God isn't talking like he was during the times of Moses and The Prophets, and at one point I was maybe thinking the same thing, only because of my upbringing. As I dove into this book totally inspired by God I was ready to receive all that the Lord was about to reveal to me within this book. My entire being was blessed beyond measures..... This book and the words of this anointed vessel imparted into me and my life..... I know with out a shadow of doubt this is where God desires his people to be in this seasons, God Still Speaks!!!
